Collection visit

This time, Funders Nigel Bagley and Lorraine Dean invite us to the Prinsengracht. In addition to photography, their collection includes paintings, sculptures, ceramics, video, sound and conceptual art. Two strong themes emerge throughout the collection: the presence of people – for example, in works by Pieter Hugo, Vivienne Sassen, Patrick Waterhouse and Jacco Olivier; and the absence of people – a cityscape by Michael Wolf, Tracey Snelling's empty "Lost Café", a midnight petrol station by Hans op de Beeck.
