all about photography

Foam Neighbours is a dynamic and dedicated community of organisations and businesses located near Foam, who share a strong connection to our museum.

Introduce your employees (and relations) to the fascinating world of photography while supporting an internationally renowned institution in your neighbourhood. Employees can find inspiration during their museum visit and enjoy exclusive access to our festive openings and other activities.

Why Foam Neighbour?

- Provide exclusive access to Foam for employees and relations
- Create a memorable experience at Foam for employees and/or relations
- Be part of a renowned, dynamic, and innovative museum that continuously surprises and responds swiftly to social developments
- Actively support a cultural institution and contribute to the development of exceptional photographic talent
- Use photography as a medium to express company values, stimulate dialogue among employees, and raise awareness for significant and pressing social issues

the atmosphere,
the programme,
everything was truly amazing.”*

– NIBC Bank on their event at Foam.
